

At the start of the year, we often resolve to get fitter and shed some pounds, but what about the pounds in our pockets?

Our free, impartial advice and tools will help you get your money into shape for 2012.

Step 1

Take your Health Check

Money health for 2012 starts here with your own personal action plan in just a few minutes.

Step 2

Set yourself a money goal

What would you like to achieve in the year ahead? Let us help you identify your money goal.

Step 3

Give your money a workout

Boost your financial fitness. Once you get started you will feel better knowing where you stand.

Step 4

Keep your money on track

As with any resolution, it can be hard to stay the course. Try our tips to help you stay on track.

Got a question?

Call us on: 0300 500 5000

If you prefer we can call you back